162 IN SENIOR CLASS IN LINE FOR DIPLOMAS

Sheepskin Awards, However, Will Depend On Final Grades

RESUME CLASSES MONDAY MORNING

Varied School Events Are Listed For Last Eight Weeks

Supt. of Schools E. S. Kerr announced today that 162 seniors probably would comprise the graduating class of Salem High school this summer, four more than last year.

Commencement will be held Thursday evening, June 9, in the High school auditorium with the baccalaureate service being held the preceding Sunday, June 5.

The number of graduates this year is more than was expected by school authorities earlier in the year. Supt. Kerr explained that a number of Juniors, who failed last summer to advance to the Senior class, had now qualified as Seniors. However, the success of the 162 seniors to graduate hinges on final grades.

Classes Resume Monday

The high school classes, as well as the rest of the public school classes, will resume Monday morning following a week's spring vacation. About eight weeks of school remain. The fifth sixth-week period will end April 29.

Each work is to be accomplished by both teachers and students before schools close officially June 10. Selection of class speakers for the commencement has not been made, nor has the speaker for the baccalaureate service been chosen. Rev. Charles F. Bailey of the First Friends church spoke last year.

Members of the Senior class this year will not have to meet the requirement that they give speeches, at some time or other, in their home rooms. This plan was abolished by the board of education at a recent meeting.

Class Parties Planned
The Salem High School Association party, a highlight of the school social calendar, will be held Friday, April 22. Plans are now being completed by Association officers.

The Freshmen-Sophomore class party will be an event of May 6. The state of the Junior-Senior prom is June 3 followed on June 7 by the Senior's farewell party.

The athletic department of the High school already is preparing for the annual Salem night relays, to be held May 7. The Columbiana county meet will be held at the district track meet here May 14. The Salem team-clubs are expected to compete in the state track meet at Columbus, May 28.

Lands Gold Emblem In Auto Club Drive

The gold emblem in the recent membership drive of the Columbiana County Motor club has been awarded to H. C. Reed of Columbiana, who signed 15 of the 95 new members.

The total was seven more than last year, secured by George Baillie of Salem, Howard J. Lindell of East Liverpool was third with six.

These three together with C. R. Reed of Leetonia, and Mrs. Ethel Reed of Wellsville, who obtained 10, and A. Wargo of Summitville, 8, and E. Beaudry of Salem with 7, and R. J. Barrow of Columbiana, and Albert E. Frosch, with 6, were qualified as honor members.

PAN-AMERICAN PEACE LAUDED

Aggression Danger Will Not Be Permitted, Says F. D. R.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—President Roosevelt declared today the American nations would not permit aggression in the western hemisphere "to be endangered from aggression coming from outside."

Speaking on Pan-American day to the governing board of the Pan-American union, the President reasserted in a few words the historic Monroe doctrine "without naming it—and placed it on an inter-American basis. His speech was broadcast to all American republics.

Same Material as Elsewhere
Asserting that the 300,000,000 citizens of this hemisphere have the same material for controversy which exists elsewhere, he said:

"Yet, we have undertaken contractual obligations to solve these normal human differences by maintaining peace; and that peace we are firmly resolved to maintain. It shall not be endangered by controversies within our family; and we will not permit it to be endangered from aggression coming from outside of our hemisphere."

The President added that this

Other officials of Salem and district potteries are also expected to speak.

Organizations which have adopted "Buy American" resolutions in support of the N. B. O. P.'s campaign are expected to send committees to the meeting to secure display cards and other literature which will be distributed throughout the city.

The general public is invited to attend.

AWAIT CHICAGO "FEUD" EFFECTS

Democrats Study Aftermath Of Factional Senatorial Fight

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 14.—The effect of the Democratic factional feud on the party's chances to win the United States senatorship was the subject of post-primary election today.

An official canvass was expected to show the rival Democratic camps polled a total vote of 1,600,000 as compared with 650,000 for the Republicans.

Incomplete returns from Tuesday's primary indicated 830,000 votes were garnered by the group headed by Gov. Henry Horner and 770,000 by the faction led by Mayor Edward J. Kelly and National Committeeman P. A. Nash.

Republican chiefs said the breach in the Democratic ranks during the bitter primary campaign would benefit G. O. P. candidates in the November election. They also claimed many Republicans voted in the Democratic column and would return to their party.

The nomination of Congressman Scott W. Lucas for United States senator was regarded as a decisive victory for the governor's forces over the Kelly-Nash political machine which endorsed U. S. District Attorney Michael L. Igoe of Chicago.

Igoe made the initial move to heal the wounds of the primary campaign. He messaged Lucas a promise to support the entire ticket in the November election.

With only 277 of the state's 8,286 precincts unreported, Lucas had 759,814 votes to Igoe's 712,684.

The New Deal was virtually certain of being the central issue in the fall campaign. Richard J. Lyons, 42-year-old state legislator and the Republican nominee for senator, coupled an appeal for Democratic votes with a declaration yesterday that preservation of representative government in the nation required the smashing of "the New Deal monster."

His opponent, Lucas, 46, and an active campaigner, carried the New Deal banner during the primary.

Fireman's Day Off

CANTON, April 14.—It wasn't the hot sun that made Fireman John F. (Red) Mercer's face burn today. It was embarrassment.

Red had Wednesday off. He decided to clean up about the place and burn the winter's accumulation of trash and dried weeds and grass about his place. Then the fire got out of control and he had to call the fire department.

LEWIS DECISION SEEN AS BAR TO UNION WITH AFL

CIO Announces Plan To Perfect Permanent Organization

SPLIT IN LABOR IS INTENSIFIED

Embattled Factions Preparing For Struggle For Pre-eminence

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—The decision of the CIO to form a permanent organization apparently locked the door today against any reunion with the American Federation of Labor.

The two embattled factions of organized labor, most observers agreed, will prepare now for an intensified rivalry overshadowing all previous struggles.

Plans New Name
John L. Lewis, who has guided the Committee for Industrial Organization since its inception in 1935, said his association would adopt a new name, but the initials "CIO" would be retained.

Leaders of the 39 affiliated unions voted yesterday to hold a constitutional convention, probably in September, at a place to be decided later.

Julius Hochman, representing the International Ladies Garment Workers—the largest CIO unit—did not vote, saying his union's executive board would have to decide whether to go along. The garment workers had hinted they might drop out of the CIO if it abandoned efforts to make peace with the AFL.

Lewis refused to reply to a reporter's question on peace prospects, declaring he knew of nothing "of less consequence" than the AFL.

Resolutions adopted at the conference included appeals for congressional passage of "adequate" relief appropriations, a wage-hour bill, additional housing legislation. A congressional investigation of the maritime commission, together with maritime labor practices, also was requested.

CLEVELAND, April 14.—Hundreds of CIO workers who participated in the 1937 "Little Steel" strike crowded union headquarters today to make formal application for their "old jobs" with Republic Steel Corp.

The National Labor Relations board ruled last week that Republic had violated the Wagner act in a series of unfair labor practices.

Spokesmen for the Steel Workers' Organizing Committee instructed discharged employees last night at meetings held here, at Youngstown and Warren that their applications would be forwarded to Republic by registered mail.

KELLEY APPEALS FOR MORE EGGS

Has Less Than Half of Amount Needed With Annual Easter Hunt Only Two Days Away

Salem may be situated in one of the largest poultry and egg-producing sections of the state, but that, apparently, isn't of any help to Joseph M. Kelley, manager of the Memorial building and sponsor of Salem's annual Easter egg hunt for school children.

To have an Easter egg hunt, you first must have the eggs. Well, Kelley has a good many dozens, but not quite enough to make the hunt on Saturday morning a success.

At least 240 dozen are needed in order that there won't be any disappointed school kids after the hunt is over. Salem residents contributed just that many last year and the Easter frolic went over great.

Today Kelley has received, at the Memorial building, 134 dozen eggs—both chicken and candy. But that isn't enough, so Kelley today is appealing for more eggs.

The hunt is only two days away and tomorrow the eggs received will be dyed various colors.

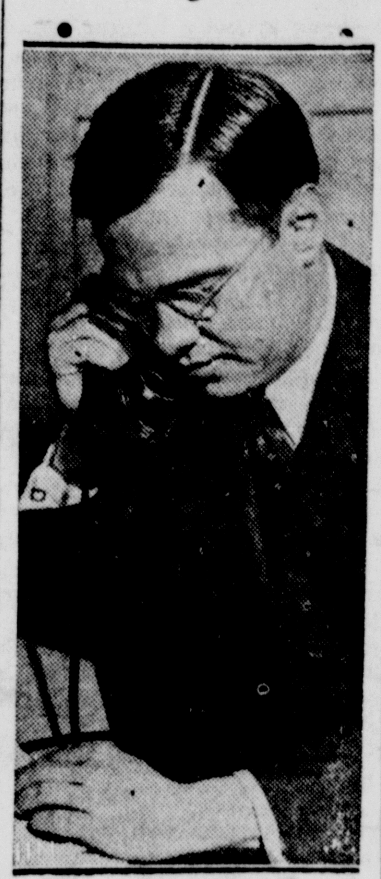

The hunt at 10 a. m. Saturday will be divided among the various school yards.

County Gets $8,834 In Sales Tax Cash

State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson announced today March allocation of sales tax revenues for local government funds amounting to $870,653.

Of this total, however, only $772,470 actually was sent to the counties, $198,182 being withheld for county debts owing the state.

REACH IMPASSE IN TAX DEBATE

Committee Disagrees Over Recommendations By Roosevelt

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—A committee of senators and representatives, disagreeing over recommendations of President Roosevelt, reached a temporary impasse today in its efforts to formulate a compromise tax bill.

The major argument was over the undistributed profits tax, approved by the house but rejected by the senate. Mr. Roosevelt asked the committee yesterday to retain the principle of that levy, as well as a graduated tax on capital gains.

Hits F. D. R.'s "Indiscretion"
Representative Treadway (R-Mass.) said an ultimate agreement by the conference committee "seems almost impossible as a result of the President's indiscretion."

Representative Vinson (D-Ky.), on the other hand, said the definition taken by the President had given supporters of the profits tax principle a powerful weapon. They can argue, he said, that failure to compromise would mean retention of the present tax law, which he declared no one wants.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote the committee that "business will be helped, not hurt" by his suggestions.

Senate Republican Leader McNary of Oregon described the President's statement as "the use of a club on congress which will increase business apprehension and fears."

Should a deadlock continue until May 2, the issue could be brought before the house again. It either could insist on retaining the undistributed profits tax.

HEARS PLANS FOR RECOVERY DRIVE IN U. S.

Roosevelt Proposes Five Billion Dollars In Federal Spending And Lending, Two Billion In Bank Credit Expansion

ASKS "UNITED NATIONAL WILL"

Declares "Will To Cooperate Places On All Of Us The Duty Of Self-Restraint—There Can Be No Dictator"

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—President Roosevelt proposed today a $7,000,000,000 recovery program, embracing $5,000,000,000 of federal spending and lending and a $2,000,000,000 expansion of bank credit.

Setting forth to congress measures by which he said the government could "help to start an upward spiral" and summing up a "united national will" for a vigorous attack on the recession, Mr. Roosevelt told legislators who recently have dealt stunning defeats to major administration measures:

"Our capacity is limited only by our ability to work together. What is needed is the will.

"The time has come to bring that will into action with every driving force at our command. And I am determined to do my share."

"THERE CAN BE NO DICTATOR"

The President declared that the will to cooperate places "on all of us the duty of self-restraint" and that "there can be no dictatorship by an individual, or by a group in this nation save through division fostered by hate. Such division there must never be."

The chief executive reiterated in a message read to the house and senate, that "improvement in government and business practices must go hand in hand with recovery."

In a second group of measures, Mr. Roosevelt asked:

$300,000,000 for immediate expansion of the housing and slum-clearance work of the United States Housing Authority; $1,450,000,000 for public works loans and grants; an additional $100,000,000 for public roads; an additional $37,000,000 for flood control and reclamation projects already authorized and an additional $25,000,000 for federal buildings.

GOLD DETERMINATION PROPOSED

A third group listed by the chief executive referred to private credit. It involved de-stabilization of $1,400,000,000 of gold and a reduction by the federal reserve board of member bank reserve requirements which would add another $750,000,000 to the credit resources of the nation's banks. With these actions, Mr. Roosevelt coupled a simplification of security commission regulations to expedite small-business financing.

"These measures," the President said, "will make more abundant the supply of funds for commerce, industry and agriculture."

(De-stabilized gold is metal which the treasury has held inactive, lest it lead to inflation, by borrowing to meet the purchase cost. Putting this gold into circulation by issuing gold certificates to the banks will increase bank resources. Member banks of the federal reserve system are required to keep a certain amount of funds on deposit with reserve banks as security against deposits.)

Mr. Roosevelt said the total "out of pocket cost to the federal government" under the new PWA program should be limited to $1,000,000,000 and that loans or grants should not be made on projects which cannot be started within six months after legislation is enacted and completed within a year and a half.

The President proposed that PWA advances should be put into optional form: Either the existing method of a 45 per cent grant and 55 per cent loan or a loan of the whole sum with the federal government assuming the interest payment.

While asking for authority to spend $450,000,000 and lend up to $1,000,000,000 on public works, Mr. Roosevelt said he did not expect the total outlay to exceed $1,000,000,000 and listed only the smaller sum in a tabular breakdown in his message.

However, PWA officials said they thought the language of the message would make possible a $1,450,000,000 outlay if all the money were advanced on the basis of the federal government granting 45 per cent and lending 55 per cent of the costs. Applied to the full sum this 45-55 division thus would involve $1,000,000,000 and leave $450,000,000 for possible full-cost loans.

Mr. Roosevelt said there still were improvements in government and business practices which would be "a definite aid to recovery."

"While I do not wish in this message to over-emphasize some of the needs," the President said, "I do want to say that I believe that we must be definitely aware of certain of them—the elimination of future tax exempt bonds of all kinds of government agencies; the subjecting of government salaries and wages of all kinds to federal and state income taxes; a serious undertaking to solve the railroad problem and the problems of monopolistic practices and price fixing."

"The never-ceasing evolution of human society will doubtless bring forth new problems which will require new adjustments. Our immediate task is to consolidate and maintain the gains achieved.

"In this situation there is no reason and no occasion for any American to allow his fears to be aroused or his energy and enterprise to be paralyzed by doubt or uncertainty."

THE FLY

A miracle may happen in the United States. It would alter the course of history.

The Achilles heel of representative government is its treasury. The people have power to raid it at will, restrained by nothing but their judgment, usually fairly where money is concerned.

There is a standard technique for treasury raids. It is to make congressmen choose between spending money and losing their jobs. Congressmen do not want to lose their jobs.

This technique has been polished under the new deal, which has placed large sums of public money, much of it borrowed, at the disposal of spenders. This has been called "pump priming," "recovery spending," "humanitarianism" etc. The name doesn't matter.

What does matter is the fact public money has been used as an ointment for soothing the bruises and strains of the depression. But the bruises and strains still hurt.

So, urged on sharply by politicians, particularly state governors and mayors who want federal funds to help solve their problems, but don't have to worry about raising them, leaders of the national government are in a mood to pass out more ointment—$4,000,000,000 worth.

In the last few days these questions have been raised: "What will happen if this doesn't do the job? What'll we use for ointment after that? Wouldn't it be better to lay off the ointment and try to work out the soreness with normal exercise?" In brief, isn't the fly in the ointment more important right now than the ointment?

If these questions are answered honestly by congressmen, if they have courage to exercise judgment independently of their eagerness to obtain public money for their districts, it will be a miracle. The most exciting thing which has happened in recent days is the possibility this representative government may do the miraculous and guard its Achilles heel.

THE MALARKEY STAGE

The war in China has now entered the malarkey stage. If you've time to keep abreast of it along with baseball training camp news and the batting averages of politicians, this is what you'll find:

1—The Japanese are systematically winning the war and claiming that Chinese boasts of having stopped the army of the Rising Sun in its tracks are pure bunk.

2—The Chinese are systematically winning the war and claiming that Japanese boasts of having overcome the army of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek are pure bunk.

Over and above these irreconcilable claims stand the facts that the war has been going on for more than nine months, that it is spring in Tokyo and also in Shanghai, and that neither side has won anything yet.

Cheated of something they can point to with pride, both sides are busily manufacturing malarkey to bolster morale, with the Japanese at a slight disadvantage because, after all, they thought it would be all over by this time—settled in their favor—and so did the Chinese, at one time.

ON-THE-PAN-AMERICA

The week's principal temporal event is Pan-American day, April 14. Whatever customarily is done to mark the occasion probably was done this year with more fervor than usual.

North Americans still don't know much about this, but they can't take South America for granted any more. From now on something more than a Pan-American day once a year with diplomats in claw-hammer coats and silk hats will be necessary to hold together what nature did not put asunder until man dug the Panama canal.

Germany and Italy are both panting for prestige in South America—panting audibly over the radio, which is the dickens of it. They never pass up an opportunity to give the Yankees a pasting. The truth is, they've been doing such a good job the Yankees are beginning to do a little radio missionary work, too.

CAN JAPS PLAY HERCULES TO CHINA'S ANTAEUS?

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs
Writer

NEW YORK, April 14.—The China-Japanese conflict has developed such astonishing recovery and resistance on the part of the defending celestials that many observers are wondering whether Nippon will in the long run be able to play Hercules to China's Antaeus.

If wars and recessions haven't driven school-days out of readers' memories, the story of Antaeus still will be knocking about. You will recall that he was a Libyan wrestler, the son of Poseidon and Gaia, the earth. No one could defeat him, because every time he touched his mother earth he grew stronger.

Hercules finally turned the trick, though. He crushed Antaeus by lifting him up so that he couldn't touch mother earth.

Just Like Antaeus
Now it is almost literally true that every time Japan has given John Chinaman a trouncing and laid him out, the latter has hopped up stronger than before. That seems like an extraordinary statement, but it really isn't so strange when one views all the circumstances.

Quite apart from the remarkable new energy being displayed by the Chinese fighting forces, we get this situation: The more territory the Japanese overrun, and the bigger the Chinese

In the course of a few more years this probably will be infinitely more important than it is now, when all it means is that Pan-America in 1938 is being taken literally by friends—not feathered ones—in the old country.

SOUR GRAPES

When Jackie Coogan was the film industry's most valuable child asset some years ago, mothers and fathers used to dream between furtive teardrops that it would be wonderful to have their own little boys tugging at the heartstrings of a whole nation.

It would be glorious, they were sure, to have a child so gifted he could make enough money before he ever heard about work to support him in luxury throughout his life—and take care of them out of the surplus.

So when Jackie, now 23 and a husband, asks for something like $4,000,000 in property and assets he earned as a child star so he can make ends meet now that he finally has heard about work, it is a shock to thousands of parents who used to figure that if such good luck befell them, everybody would live happily ever afterward and never need to worry about money any more. A funny thing, money.

FELON

IT IS rather a common experience to meet one who has an infection of the finger. This is usually seen at the border of the nail or under the nail.

A felon is the name given an infection caused by the entrance of germs into the skin, usually of the finger. These may reach the underlying structures through a slight scratch, prick or cut. As a rule, the original injury is so slight that it is overlooked.

There is no doubt that if some antiseptic were applied to pin-pricks, scratches or other injuries, felons would not be so prevalent as they are. Although they are annoying and may prove to be extremely painful, they are not very serious, usually, although severe cases of blood poisoning are sometimes traced to neglect of such infections.

The victim becomes aware of the infection by a peculiar throbbing and feeling of fullness in the infected part. The finger may become greatly swollen, in some cases actually to double its natural size. When marked swelling is present you can be sure there is an abundance of pus under the skin.

Method Valueless

Many resort to old-fashioned methods of treatment, smearing the part with some salve or ointment. This application is likely to be of little value here, as it usually is elsewhere. Even the most diligent use of salves or ointments will do little good. In fact, there is danger in this practice, because a strong salve may irritate the inflamed part and help to spread the infection.

To overcome the infection an incision must be made. It is a minor procedure, not at all serious. The doctor makes an opening at the site of infection, permitting the pus and debris to escape.

If this procedure is inaugurated at the proper time, the infection clears up within a short time. There is little danger of spread of the pus or development into a chronic infection. But neglect in obtaining the "needed cut" may lead to extension of the infection and prolongation of the disease.

THEATER Attractions

The State attraction for the next five days, beginning Friday and running through next Tuesday, will be the new Walt Disney technicolor feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

For years movie-goers the world over have been borne on the wings of fantasy by Walt Disney's animated characters for from eight to ten minutes at a time, but now, in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," his first full-length feature, they are enabled to forget the world of realism and revel in the beauties of an idealized drama for an hour and a quarter.

For the first time a producer has evinced the daring to bring to the screen a fairy tale in the spirit in which it was written and believed. "Snow White" has been visualized magically in more than 7,000 feet of film.

Entirety of Drawings
"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is made in its entirety of drawings animated into living action, but the drawings are infinitely different from those of Disney's short length output. In the first place, with the exception of the seven funny little dwarfs, there is scant caricature in the picture. "Snow White" herself is a charming little lady with the "skin white as snow, lips red as a rose and hair black as ebony." And she has a charming singing voice with which to deliver four of the eight songs in the picture.

Further, unlike the funny "Mickey" and "Sillys," "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" has several emotional ingredients besides humor. These include high drama, pathos, excitement and suspense. And, of course, there is an abundance of comedy, particularly in the scenes devoted to the dwarfs.

Wicked Queen Dies
And for the first time in any Disney feature, a character meets death in this Disney picture. For "Snow White's" wicked Queen is chased to death by the seven dwarfs after she has persuaded the heroine to bite into the poisoned apple. But "Snow White" only lies in a stupor as a result, and her Prince Charming comes along and arouses her with a kiss.

Akim Tamiroff, Anna May Wong, Gail Patrick and Harvey Stephens in "Dangerous to Know" will be seen at the State for the last times tonight.

Buck Jones in "Headin' East" will be the Grand theater attraction Friday and Saturday.

Jack Holt and Beverly Roberts in "Making the Headlines" and William Hall, Jack Mulhall and Jane Wyman in "The Spy Ring" will be featured at the Grand for the last times tonight.

PUSH HUNT FOR TORSO SLAYER

Blood Stains Provide Impetus In Cleveland Search

CLEVELAND, April 14.—Blood stains gave impetus today to the hunt for Cleveland's sex-crazed torso slayer.

Police ballistics expert Lloyd Trunk announced that chemical analysis showed stains found on the attic floor of the west side residence were made by blood, but that it had not been determined if it was of human origin.

A 56-year-old man, an acquaintance of one of the decapitation killer's victims, was taken into custody at the house late yesterday for questioning.

Knife Is Found
Detective Peter Merylo found two pairs of spotted trousers and a discolored long-bladed knife in the house. Preliminary examination indicated the knife was discolored by rust, Merylo said.

The man held denied knowledge of the attic blood stains and any connection with the crimes.

Police detained him after he identified himself voluntarily as the person who took photographs of Edward Androssy, one of the first of the slayer's 11 victims. The pictures were published in a newspaper Tuesday.

The man related that he took the snapshots a year and a half before Androssy, a former hospital orderly, was found slain. They showed the youthful Androssy in a room ornately furnished and decorated. Pictures of semi-nude women hung on the walls. The man said the camera he used was Androssy's property.

Visited Several Times

Merylo quoted the man as saying he met Androssy by chance in a park and that the youth visited his room, at another house in which he formerly lived, "five or six times." The stains were discovered in the man's present home, which he shares with two sisters.

Investigators had sought the room in which the pictures were taken since discovery together of the bodies of Androssy and an unidentified male companion, both decapitated and emasculated, on Sept. 23, 1935.

Coroner S. R. Gerber announced that a severed leg, found last Friday in the Cuyahoga river, was proof of the city's eleventh torso slaying.

Ohio Winter Wheat Ahead of Average

COLUMBUS, April 14.—Federal-state farm statisticians estimated today Ohio's 1938 winter wheat crop at 48,220,000 bushels, as of April 1, compared with 46,056,000 in 1937. This was far ahead of the 10-year average yield of 34,585,000 bushels.

The report, compiled by Glenn S. Ray, federal senior agricultural statistician, stated:

"While some wheat was sown rather late last fall and had not much growth up to December, the unusually mild winter with an exceptionally warm and rather wet March brought most of the seedlings through in good shape. Damage from alternate freezing and thawing, such as often occurs in Ohio, was practically negligible this year."

Women Of Nation Garb For Easter

NEW YORK, April 14 — The floweriest, most feminine Easter parade in many a year is ready to swing down the avenues of the nation, and at this stage it seems safe to predict:

1. That the women's hats will, as usual, set men agape.

2. That there'll be a lot of good old navy blue, notwithstanding all the new grays, rusts, checks and flower-sprigged prints.

Feminine finery, always the focal point of the Easter parade, is frothy and lighthearted this season.

Virtually no holds are barred as to hats. There are Gibson girl sailors swathed in veils with waist-length ends, giddy little pill-boxes, clown cones, bonnets and shallow, tilted bits of headgear held on with an old-fashioned snood.

Everything has light, gay touches. Shoes have cut-out toes, and stockings are sheer enough to show tinted toe-nails. There are gloves in flower shades, and flower tints for fingernails.

F. D. R. Holds Parley On Refugee Program

WASHINGTON, April 14.—President Roosevelt discussed with government officials, churchmen and civic leaders today plans for the American sponsored international conference to assist political refugees from Germany and Austria to find new homes.

East Toledo Mills Are Swept By Fire

TOLEDO, April 14.—Fire early today destroyed three of the four buildings comprising the Saunders Mills, Inc., East Toledo, entailing a loss of $350,000.

common objective "forms a lasting foundation for the maintenance of an international understanding unique in the world." Elsewhere, he said, there are "tragedies whose shadows die heavy on the world."

"The 21 American republics," Mr. Roosevelt continued, "present proudly to the rest of the world a demonstration that the rule of justice and law can be substituted for the rule of force; that resort to war as an instrument of policy is not necessary; that international differences of all kinds can be solved through peaceful negotiation; that the sanctity of the pledged word faithfully observed and generously interested offers a system of security with freedom."

Signs of Strength
"National and international law and morality are not the restraints of weakness; they are signs of serene strength—confidence in our purpose and ability to maintain independence and democracy," he said.

The President laid down a brief program:
"Our ideal is Democratic liberty.
"Our instrument is honor and friendship.
"Our method is increased understanding.
"Our basis is confidence."

LISBON, April 14.—Investigating a telephone call from Williamsport Wednesday afternoon stating a man was lying beside the road apparently dead, Sheriff Harry Gosney found a 21-year old Ravenna youth prostrate on Route 7 near the village.

Evidently the victim of an epileptic seizure, the young man was brought to the county jail and later turned over to Portage county authorities. Ravenna officials said he had walked away from the state hospital at Gallipolis Sunday afternoon. He was returned to the institution today.

Several motorists narrowly avoided striking the youth.

Committee Disagrees Over Recommendations By Roosevelt

tributed profits tax and other provisions of the house bill, or accept the senate changes.

Debate Hatch Bill

The senate debated a bill by Senator Hatch (D-N. M.) to bar more than 300,000 federal employees from taking part in political conventions that nominate national officials.

"The bill is intended to prevent packed conventions," said Hatch, who was opposed by administration leaders.

The house was arguing over a proposal to add $92,000,000 to an administration recommendation of $100,000,000 for highway aid to the states. There were prospects the budget bureau would approve the increase.

Excise Tax Measure Presented In House

A bill providing for an excise tax of 30 cents per dozen on all pottery imports has been introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman Lawrence Imhoff.

The excise tax, according to the bill, will be applied to three schedules in section 601 of the Revenue Act of 1932. The bill is intended as an amendment to that act. It affects a wide variety of products covering the chief range of the American pottery industry.

This amendment was inspired by the plight of the American industry, much of which is located in the 18th congressional district. Both manufacturers and workers come into direct competition with cheap foreign labor.

LEWIS DECISION SPLITS LABOR

CIO Announces Plan To Perfect Permanent Organization

Union leaders have estimated the labor board order would affect approximately 5,000 former Republic employees.

The former strikers, echoing SWOC Chairman Philip Murray's assertion that the board's findings confirmed CIO's stand, were noisily jubilant over prospects that they soon would be back on Republic payrolls.

An impromptu parade moved through Warren streets. Hundreds assembled near Cleveland union headquarters, blocking traffic as they celebrated their self-styled "victory."

Two independent employee associations, however, have declared they would contest the board's ruling and seek exclusive bargaining rights for all Republic workers on the ground that they represent "practically all" persons currently employed.

The independent groups, formed after mills resumed operations last summer, claim reinstatement of the CIO men will throw as many non-CIO employees out of jobs.

Republic announced certain phases of the labor board's order would be taken to court.

LISBON, April 14.—Spring housecleaning is under way at both the courthouse and county jail.

The 50-foot flagstaff was dismantled Wednesday and treated with a coat of aluminum paint. When dry it will be replaced and a new flag, the gift of a Lisbon merchant, unfurled from the top.

Workmen have been busy for the past week painting outside woodwork at the courthouse. The Goddess of Justice surmounting the clock tower is resplendent in new paint which also was applied to the face of the clock.

"NEW BOND BREAD" GAINING IN POPULARITY DAILY"

REPORT GROCERS ALL OVER TOWN

It's softer... stays fresh longer!

THERE'S only one reason why a loaf grows in popularity. Folks tell one another "it has something." And we believe everyone in town should try the new soft Bond Bread at least once to see what it has!

For one thing, it has a new soft tempting texture. It has a fine full flavor, too—the kind of flavor that comes from good things baked just right.

But one taste can tell you more than a thousand words. Ask for the new Bond Bread. Serve it, and see what your family says. We think it will go on your list for keeps.

Republic Will Show First Quarter Loss

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 13.—Tom M. Girdler, chairman of the board of Republic Steel Corp., told stockholders at the annual meeting yesterday his company was operating at less than 30 per cent of capacity as was the industry as a whole. The company will show a loss for the first quarter, he said. "I wouldn't say that 1938 shows much promise of being a good year for the steel industry or for Republic steel," Girdler said. While the chairman was somewhat pessimistic about general business conditions, he did say that there were some lines in better shape than steel and even in the latter industry the present trend was slightly upward. Girdler said that while he could not say exactly what the break-even point of Republic is because of

Westinghouse Firm Is Making Profits

NEW YORK, April 14.—Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. bookings in the first quarter were $37,998,569, compared with $74,242,584 in the comparable period last year, A. W. Robertson, chairman, said at the annual meeting yesterday.
March business aggregated $15,126,588 against $11,439,127 in February.
Unfilled orders as of March 31 were stated to be $53,651,814, compared with $60,298,087 on Jan. 1. Robertson said the company was "making profits" in spite of general adverse business conditions. "There are substantial orders on the books," he said.
"This month we will pay back $5,000,000 of the money we borrowed last year to help us meet the enormous rush of business and before long we expect to pay off the balance, which will leave the company out of debt."

Seek Funds To Buy Boy Artificial Legs

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 14.—Unless there is a more generous response to the appeal for funds, a 17-year-old, legless East Liverpool boy will remain bedfast after he recovers from an operation which cost him both limbs.
About one-third of the $350 needed to furnish the boy with artificial legs has been obtained. The patient now is convalescing from the operation, which was performed at City Hospital.
The campaign for funds is being sponsored by the Junior Women's club.

Circus Strike Ends; 400 Return To Jobs

NEW YORK, April 14—The first major strike in American circus history ended today as 400 attendants of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus went back to work under a compromise agreement.

Performers had refused to join in the two-day strike.

They worked at rigging apparatus side by side with circus executives to put on three performances of the show—minus elephants, peanuts and Gargantua, the gorilla—in Madison Square Garden after the walkout was called Tuesday.

The settlement was announced by Arthur S. Meyer of the New York state mediation board after a conference with John Ringling North, executive head of the circus, and Ralph Whitehead, executive secretary of the American Federation of Actors (AFL).

Meyer said the agreement provided a $45 a month wage, plus board and room, during the engagement in Madison Square Garden and in the Boston Garden.

The union had demanded that the men be paid the same wage for the Boston and New York engagements that they receive "under canvas" on the road—$60 a month—instead of the $30 minimum they were paid.

Germany To Fortify Base On Sylt Isle

LONDON, April 14—Germany is establishing a fortified naval base on the island of Sylt in the North sea off the west coast of German Schleswig-Holstein.

Alfred Duff Cooper, first lord of the admiralty, told the house of commons today.

(Sylt, 22 miles long and varying in width from half a mile to eight miles, lies just off the German-Danish border.)

(Germany already has reestablished a naval base on the North sea island of Helgoland in defiance of the treaty of Versailles, under which the World War base of the German navy was dismantled.)

WRITERS POOL PICKS GIANTS TO WIN PENNANT

BARROW THINKS TIGERS THREAT FOR LOOP FLAG

Sees Detroit As Menace To Yankees In American Loop Race

NEW YORK, April 14.—The Detroit Tigers still are the only semi-menace to the Yankees, says big Ed Barrow, business manager of the two-time champions. He even thinks they might make a slightly closer thing out of the coming American league race.

As Barrow generally is considered one of the game's most astute citizens, it might be well to note that he can't see the Cleveland Indians higher than third and thinks that the Boston Red Sox will slip into the fourth notch.

"I don't want to sound boastful," said big Ed, propping his old-fashioned, high-topped brogans on his desk, "but we should win again by a comfortable margin. Maybe not by a dozen games, like last year, but by enough. Yeah, that goes whether DiMaggio reports or not. One man never made any ball club."

"Now, for second place, let's see... put Cleveland. No, put Detroit. I'm afraid Cleveland is a third-place club. They've been that way for several years now. Maybe their new manager, Oscar Vitt, can change things, but I'd rather wait and see."

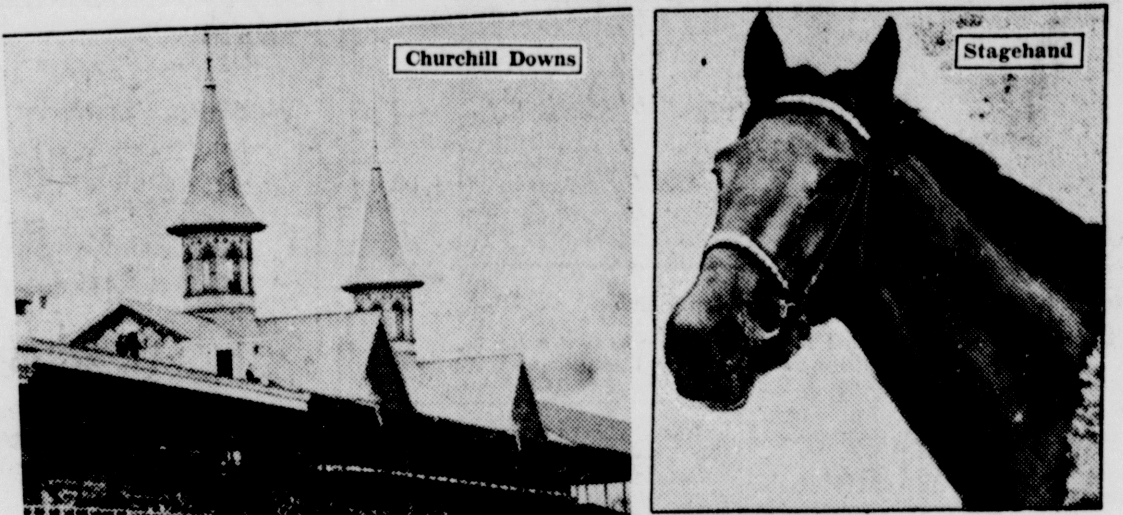

"Detroit figures to be a little stronger, I think, because Rudy York will be their catcher from the start, and he's a good hitter."

"Boston ought to finish fourth this year and I hope they do, because Tom Yawkey is a fine fellow. He's spent a lot of money. If they don't do it this year I'm afraid he'll have to start all over. Fellows like Greer and Fox and Cronin and Chapman are getting past their prime. They have a second base problem, too."

"I'll give fifth place to Chicago, followed by Washington, St. Louis and Philadelphia. Luke Appling's injury will handicap the White Sox for quite awhile, and you can't tell what that trading did to the club."

Record Crowd Expected to Jam Louisville for Kentucky Derby

Duel Between Stagehand and Fighting Fox Looks Probable Although An Impressive Field Is Entered

Earl Sande, Fighting Fox, Mrs. Ethel V. Mars

NEW YORK, April 13.—Rumors have been going round that there's going to be another running of the dear old Kentucky Derby this year and that all the jolly colonels are getting their goatees trimmed for the event.

Having made something of a tradition of trying to jam into Churchill Downs on Derby day, I shall probably have another go at it, regardless of the fact that one gets a stiff neck and a rare set of corns attempting to barge through the crowd and get a glimpse of the three-year-olds doing their stuff.

There is another formidable hurdle in the way of properly viewing the turf classic, and that is the obstacles put in your way on Derby eve in this metropolis of the Blue Grass country. Said handicappers consist of numerous well-meaning but misguided friends who apparently conspire to help one down the primrose path.

Seriously, though, there are several interesting angles to the derby this year, one of them being the absence of any entry by Col. E. R. Bradley whose nags have copped four derbies and whose horses are always heavily backed by the native sons.

One of the reasons why the Cannel will be merely another spectator is because he sold one of his most promising bets to Mrs. Emil Denmark of Chicago. This candidate is named Blind Eagle and can really carry the mail by all reports, being able to pick them up and lay 'em down both far and fast.

All of which leads to the interesting topic of whether a lady will own the derby winner this season. Chances seem to be fairly bright for them because, in addition to the aforesaid Blind Eagle of Mrs. Denmark's, there are about a score of other promising bobsails owned by the fair sex.

Mrs. Ethel V. Mars, one of the outstanding horsewomen of the country, owner of the big Milky Way Farms stable, has the fleet Tiger in the race, as well as three other nominations—Mountain Ridge, Farrell and C-Note. Tiger flashed impressive form as a two-year-old and is picked by many to be up near the front when they pay off.

Two feminine derby winners of former years will be in there trying to repeat. Both Mrs. Payne Whitney, who scored with Twenty Grand in 1931, and Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloan, whose Cavalade led the pack in 1934, have candidates nominated.

Although only four women have won the derby since its inception back in 1875, there are about 18 who have entries listed.

With all due respect to the ladies, however, we will string along with men this time. Fighting Fox looks like a honeysuckle sneak along the rail if the dope issuing from the stable of William Woodworth, where canny Sunny Fitzsimmons is trainer, means anything. And it should mean something for Woodward has had two derby winners, Omaha and Gallant Fox. Of course, Stagehand, trained by Earl Sande, will probably be favorite but beware of Fighting Fox.

RENAME HAWLEY HEAD OF SALEM BOWLING GROUP

Juergens Is Relected As Secretary Of Local Association

Commended for their work in promoting increased enthusiasm and interest in local bowling activity, Ralph W. Hawley and W. H. Juergens were reelected as president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Salem Bowling association at the annual meeting of the organization at the Masonic temple last night.

In renaming Hawley and Juergens to third terms as head of organized bowling in Salem, members of the board of control of the association praised both men for the splendid work they have done in guiding and promoting the interests of the keglers sport during the past two years.

More than 20 team captains and league officials attended the meeting at which plans for the annual men's banquet were completed in addition to the election of officers for the 1938-39 season.

Only once change was made in the executive personnel of the association. James Primm, president of the National league and a member of Bunn's Shoes team, was elected vice president to succeed C. Virgil Rakestraw, who has held the office for two years.

The German hall on Railroad st. was selected as the site for the banquet which will be held Tuesday night, April 25. The matter of entertainment for the annual get-together was left up to the entertainment committee.

Tickets for the banquet will sell for 50 cents and may be secured through league secretaries. It was announced that three leagues National, American and Pastime—have provided funds to pay for their bowlers' tickets to the banquet.

Secretary Juergens announced that he had written John Ackerman, president of the Cleveland Bowling association, in regard to his coming to the banquet to speak briefly on plans for the 1939 American Bowling Congress tournament, which will be held in Cleveland.

Ohio Edison Ladies Annex Championship In Pin Loop

The 1937-38 season of the Masonic Ladies' Bowling league came to an end at the Masonic temple alleys last night with the Ohio Edison winning the championship by the narrow margin of one victory.

Despite losing three games of their final match to Elks No. 2, the O. E. ladies finished the season with one more win than the American Automobile Association team, which won the league championship last season.

The Ohio Edison wound up its campaign with a record of 59 wins and 25 losses as compared to the A. A. A. team's 58 wins and 26 defeats.

Elks No. 2, which conquered the Ohio Edison in its final match, captured third place with a record of 57 wins and 27 set-backs. S. S. Kresge ladies took fourth place by winning 54 games while losing 30.

The first four teams waged a close battle for the top position throughout the season. Elks No. 2, held the lead for some time, the A. A. A. ladies also had their day in first as did Kresge's.

Although a close contender during the entire league race, the champion Ohio Edison team did not pull into sole possession until late in the season.

The O. E. team is composed of Miss Olive Ramsey, captain; Mrs. Stella Harhoff, Mrs. Ann Akens, Mrs. Betty Beatty, Mrs. Edith Groner, and Mrs. Ethel Hall.

Fifth place for the season was won by Mullins Office team, while the Salem News ladies finished in sixth position. Elks No. 1 ended the campaign in seventh place and the Electric Furnace finished eighth.

The feminine keglers plan to hold their annual handicap ten-pin tournament before winding up their bowling activity for the season. Plans for the tournament, which will be held at the temple alleys, are now being made by Mrs. Paul Covert, president of the league.

Arrangements are also being made for the ladies' bowling banquet which will be held at the temple.

Belvidere Bowler Cops Second Spot

CHICAGO, April 14.—With a total of 1959 pins, Dr. David James of Belvidere, Ill., bowled into second place in the all-events of the American Bowling Congress at the Coliseum yesterday for the only major change of the day.

Dr. James started with 603 in the team event, made 685 in the two-man event with games of 225-228-223, and continued with scores of 232-195, 243 for 670 in the singles.

He was only 19 pins short of catching Don Beatty of Jackson, Mich., who had held the all-events lead since March 12.

CHICAGO CUBS RATED SECOND TO N. Y. GIANTS

St. Louis Third Choice In National League; Pirates Fourth

BY ALAN GOULD

NEW YORK, April 14.—Major league baseball writers today forecast a two-club race for the 1938 National league pennant, with the champion New York Giants pacing the Chicago Cubs.

A scant majority, 31 out of 60 experts voting in the annual Associated Press poll, picks the well-balanced club managed by Bill Terry to make it three in a row, 22 name the Cubs to finish on top, while only four favor the St. Louis Cardinals and three are willing to take a chance on the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Last year the Giants were second choice. The Cardinals, by acquiring Lonnie Warneke, generally were rated to have command of the situation, but the Gas House Gang stumbled home in fourth place. This season the St. Louis club, although the consensus choice to finish no better than third, nevertheless is equipped to upset the dope again.

The poll's chief surprise is the preference shown for Cincinnati, cellar club in 1937. The Reds are the consensus selection over Boston by a narrow margin, for fifth place. This seems largely to be a personal vote of confidence for the managerial ability of Bill McKee, who was the master mind for the Bostonians last year. Not a single critic expects the Reds to finish last this year.

The Dodgers are picked to wind up just where their pilot, Burleigh Grimes, predicts—seventh.

The box score on the National league poll, showing distribution of votes:

| | 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 1937 |
|--------------|-----|-----|-----|------|
| New York | 31 | 13 | 11 | 1st |

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

By SID FEDER

(Pinch-hitting for Eddie Brietz)
NEW YORK, April 14.—Tip. Evil Eye Ben Pikel is getting ready an extra-special "hex" to toss at War Admiral in his race with Seabiscuit.

It'll be the All-America hoodoo's first start against the hosses so he's gone into a trance down in Washington to get the spirit's feedback special on how to work on the Admiral... While his manager is looking around for a chief who can cook oats, in case the job needs a special diet... the "Eye" claims his "whammy" has worked on 200 fighters.

For a couple of old guys giving pop time the willies, take a look at Tony Lazzeri and Luke Sewell... old Poosh 'Em Opp is hitting a mere .510 for the Cubs this spring... and Luke shows a 478 mark for the White Sox... the Indians have tagged that famous Giants' pitching for only ten homers in eight games... Larry MacPhail says Van Munsell will be the National league's top flinger this year.

Ad life's little jokes: Tulsa gave Ed Selway his unconditional release about mid-season last year because of a sore arm... Fort Worth picked him up later and he pitched 'em into the Texas league pennant... now Mickey Cochrane thinks he's aces and figures on keeping him with Detroit all year... Johnny Fischer, the ex-amateur champ, used his U. of Cincinnati spring vacation to head for Miami and a little golf... some of it with Francis Oulmet... the Puerto Rican legislature re-named the island's ball park "Sixto Escobar athletic park" in honor of the bantamweight champ.

Tarzan Taylor, Marquette's line coach, is getting the business from the boys around the campus... A photographer snapped him with a bunch of roses, gift of co-eds, and he's been steaming ever since... Jimmy Braddock referees in his home town (West New York)... he'll be the third man when he'll be the third man when Gus Lesnevich and Buddy Ryan tangle in Lew Diamond's Miller stadium promotion... Lou Fette has his eyes on a farm down Missouri way... and figures to retire there when he's through with baseball... this corner's extra-special pennant picks will be in Monday's edition... for the magic job of the year, let's nominate Bill Stewart for piloting the Chicago hockey Blackhawks into the Stanley cup... he not only pulled a rabbit out of a hat, he pulled an elephant from a thimble.

Players are requested to meet at the Althouse garage at 1:30 p. m. Saturday to leave for the practice session.

Rules Changes May Be Aid To Softball This Summer

COLUMBUS, April 14.—C. Carl May of Portsmouth, state commissioner of the Ohio Amateur Softball association, predicted today that several rules changes, all aiding offense, would make the game more popular than ever this summer.

TURF CLASSIC NOT SETTLED

Race Between War Admiral And Seabiscuit Is Still Up In Air

LOS ANGELES, April 14.—Charles S. Howard, the amiable Dayton, O. sportsman who owns Seabiscuit, put a big question mark today after the proposed $100,000 race between the 'Biscuit and Samuel Riddle's War Admiral.

Directors of Belmont park in New York set the stage for the turf classic two days ago, and both Howard and Riddle were quoted as accepting the terms and the date May 30.

Then Howard came to Los Angeles, he insisted he wanted to send Seabiscuit against War Admiral "above anything else." But... He said he had planned to race Seabiscuit in the $50,000 Gold cup handicap at the new Hollywood park track in June and also Jockey "Red" Pollard, Biscuit's regular pilot, hadn't recovered from a broken collar bone.

In one breath Howard said: "This race with War Admiral means everything to me. We've been trying to get it for over a year. We can't pass up a chance."

In another breath he concluded: "It's still up in the air."

The big change, May said, was that the "bunt" would be allowed this year. Another forces the pitchers, who must use the underhand delivery, to "follow through" with the hand and wrist past the straight line of the body before the ball is released. Jerky or "snap" release of the ball back of the hips is forbidden; and the hurlers may not wear white or light gray uniforms.

Bert Dawson of East Liverpool was named commissioner to handle the sectional tournament in Columbiana, Carroll, Harrison, Jefferson and Belmont counties.

Vines Holds Edge
TOLEDO, April 14.—Ellsworth Vines held a margin of 32 matches to 25 today over Fred Perry in their professional exhibition tennis tour. Vines won here last night, 4-6, 6-4, 6-1. They are scheduled in Cleveland Saturday night.

Funds Sought For Weather Stations

WASHINGTON, April 14—If congress provides sufficient funds, the weather bureau plans to establish 33 additional airway reporting stations throughout the United States. Dr. Willis R. Gregg disclosed his bureau's plans at hearings before the house appropriations committee which was considering the annual agriculture department appropriations measure. The hearings were published today, when the committee sent the bill to the house. Gregg said plans called for the establishment of stations with a full force of weather bureau commissioned personnel for 24-hour service, including four pilot balloon observations daily. Points at which stations would be established included Vandalla, O.

CROSSETTI BACK AT REGULAR JOB

Yankees "Holler Guy" Returns To Old Berth After Lay-Off

BALTIMORE, April 14—Frankie Crossetti, the "holler guy" of the New York Yankees' last three championship teams, is doing business at the old stand at shortstop. Out of action for most of the training season with a severe charley horse, Crossetti has recovered just in time to start his seventh major league season.

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Sammy Hale, the Indians' second baseman, turned a neat trick yesterday. He made both teams groan with a wild throw. The Tribe groaned because a man reached first safely, the New York Giants because Joe Moore wasn't badly hurt.

PORTSMOUTH, O.—The Cincinnati Reds heard in a roundabout way today that Chick Hafey would like to take one more crack at the big time. Catcher Ernie Lombardi revealed he had heard from the only holdout on the team and that Hafey had written, "I'm not through yet." Hafey expressed his willingness to rejoin the team if General Manager Giles would boost the club's pay offer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Second base, long a weak spot of the Cleveland Indians, is warring the Tribe again. Unless Sammy Hale's throwing improves in a few days, Jimmy Webb may get a chance to show what he can do at the job.

PHILADELPHIA—The Athletics are back with one spot, shortstop, apparently plugged. Russ Peters is filling in brilliantly for the injured Skeeter Newsome. He got three for four, one a double, against the Dodgers yesterday and was steady in the field.

THOMASVILLE, N. C.—Chuck Klein, the Phillies' slugger, apparently has ended his battling slump. The big Hoosier drove in four runs yesterday with three hits, including a double and a home run.

Bars County Funds

COLUMBUS, April 14—Att'y Gen. Herbert S. Duffy gave an opinion to Jefferson county officials today that county commissioners were without authority to appropriate funds for participation in the Northwest Territory celebration.

Under the home rule amendment, municipalities may participate in such celebrations, however.

THE WHOLE NEIGHBORHOOD LOOKS BETTER SINCE WE PAVED WITH CONCRETE

"I WISH we had put concrete on our streets long ago. Aside from being the best to drive on, it keeps itself clean, looks better, and has made our neighborhood more desirable. Property values are up."

That's not half the story. Your own experience tells you that concrete helps you to drive safely; that it effectively checks skidding; that its light-grey surface helps you see at night.

And concrete saves you money because it is moderate in first cost, low in upkeep and long lasting.

Be guided by your experience and observation. When your streets come up for paving—insist on concrete.

"EXTRA FARE" by Edna Robt Webster

CHAPTER XXVII

"Human nature never changes," Jaxie went on, "so there is nothing new about which to write. The same is true of any musical composition. It is only a different arrangement of the same limited scale of notes. It is not within human ability to invent a new musical note, a new color in the spectrum, a new incident in life. The different stories of the passengers on this train are only typical of the true-life stories which may be found on other trains, in any city or anywhere else."

"They say that truth is stranger than fiction," he reminded her tritely. "Which is the extent of my literary knowledge."

"No true story proves that better than that little woman's who was telling our fortunes last evening. I was talking to her this morning again, and she told me the queerest story about herself."

"She may be dizzy, anyway—reading cards and all that stuff."

"Oh, that!" Jaxie laughed. "But didn't she tell me the truth, I'd like to know? She told me that I faced a very important change. A good one—which has yet to be proved, of course," she added merrily. "She told me that the man I loved had come into my life, but that I was not sure of my own heart. I decided that soon afterward, you helping me with the decision."

"How about the enemy who is near you, and the jealous woman?"

"Why—you remember all that?"

"And the trouble that you were going to have before you found happiness," he added soberly.

"And you laugh at my credulity?"

He shrugged. "We all get plenty of trouble along with our happiness, don't we? We know that we have to expect it, yet we try to kid ourselves that there isn't any more trouble ahead for us. We always hope it will be for the other fellow. I wish I might take all of your share for you, my precious. Instead of that, I'll probably cause you plenty more."

"Oh, my dear, don't sound so tragic. Of course, we all have trouble before us. But isn't that what makes the happiness so terribly sweet?"

Their hands clasped in understanding.

"You would take it like that," he admired. "But you didn't tell me the queer story about this Miss Proctor."

"Oh, yes. It's almost uncanny, dear. Why do suppose she is on this train?"

"Don't tell me she is the one who is taking the Chicago loot to the coast!" he mocked. "Everyone else has been accused."

"No, but she is going to the coast to claim a fortune, left to her by the man whom she refused to marry thirty years ago. Can you match that for romance? He died recently at Sydney, Australia, a lonely old bachelor with the memory of a dream woman in his heart, and bequeathed to her his entire estate of several hundred thousand. I've forgotten how many. How little it matters how many, now," she sighed. "Kirby, isn't that tragic? If I refused to marry you now, would you remember me for so long?"

"How could I forget you?" he smiled kindly. "But I can't promise to be that faithful, so you had better not try me out. That isn't romance, Jaxie. That is worse than death, to live always with a dead thing like that."

"It is rather horrible."

"But why didn't she marry him thirty years ago?"

"Because he was what they called an adventurer in those days. He wanted her to go to Australia with him and she was afraid to take a chance with life to find happiness. Everyone warned her against such a 'never-do-well,' and so she allowed him to wander off alone, while she shut herself up in a dusty school-room and disciplined other women's children and ground chalk dust into her hands, killing the most vital part of her life and living in solitude and memory. I suppose that is why she learned to read fortunes in cards, yearning to peer into her own future and find happiness there, when she might have had her mind and hands busy with the work of caring for her husband and babies. Do you suppose it was a great consolation to her when she discovered that a fortune was coming to her, and foresaw a death that involved her only as indirectly as the distance from Chicago to Australia?"

"Poor, meek little woman—that she should let life crush her like that instead of reaching out to claim it! Now she rides in an extra-fare train to the coast to claim the husks of comfort and a dead romance."

"But, darling, it's not your grief. Why brood over hers?" He laughed at her seriousness.

"I can't get it off my mind. Kirby, it is so depressing."

"Oh, snap out of it, or I'll take you out on the platform and bring that shine back into your eyes."

"I dare you," she taunted him.

Mose interrupted them, extending a yellow envelope toward Kirby.

"Telegram, huh?"

Kirby started, then relaxed quickly. "Oh, yes," he said, as if he had expected a message. "Thanks." He tipped Mose and stood up, smiled at Jaxie. "Will you pardon me for a few minutes, dear?"

"Of course." She tried to be gracious and casual, but the smile on her lips felt strained and the warm glow turned to ice in her veins.

When Kirby had gone, swinging down the aisle toward the front of the train, Jaxie tried vainly to dismiss the incident from her thoughts.

An inner voice taunted, "Something is queer and you know it. He has made you surrender your love and faith to him, and you know nothing at all about him."

"Only that I love him," she reminded herself.

"Why doesn't he tell you something—anything at all? You have a right to some explanation."

"I'll wait until he is ready to tell me," she resolved bravely. But the fear remained, as any fear remains in the face of any display of courage. Fear of what? There is nothing more devastating than an unnamed fear.

Kirby stepped into the deserted lounge of one of the forward cars and tore open the envelope. His eyes scanned the cryptic words hurriedly, read them again more carefully.

He nodded to himself, folded the paper slowly and inserted it into the inner pocket of his coat.

To relieve the confusion of her thoughts, Jaxie had gone into drawing room A to visit with Mrs. Dade and the children. Junior clasped her about the knees and smiled up at her with delight. She was the one familiar friend to him in all this bewildering experience of strange faces, astonishing noises and continual reprimands.

"I love you a whole bunch," he declared frankly.

"I'm so glad," Jaxie sat down to take him on her knee. "So do I love good little boys like Junior. And he has been such a good boy, hasn't he, mother?" She turned to Mrs. Dade for verification.

Presently, the woman asked Jaxie timidly, "Do you think I would have time to get our lunch in the station when we stop at Winslow? I'm afraid I can't manage the children very well in the dining car. I wonder if we would have time enough to eat."

"I doubt if you would, with the children. But why don't you have your lunch served in here, Mrs. Dade? Then you could take your time about eating, and the children would enjoy it so much more."

"I—why I—didn't know we could have meals served in here," Carrie confessed.

"Of course, you wouldn't know."

Jaxie dismissed her inexperience with the matter-of-factness. "We all have to learn things for the first time."

"Does it cost much more?" hesitantly.

"Not a thing," Jaxie denied. "I'll tell you: If you will write out your order I'll give it to the waiter when I go in to lunch, and you won't have to bother about anything."

Carrie envied Jaxie her faculty for handling troublesome matters with such ease. Jaxie did not tell her that an additional charge for special service and a munificent tip were the price of the comfort in which she later enjoyed her lunch with the children in their drawing room.
